CEO's comments

Our efforts to drive growth and reduce costs have yielded results and the third quarter developed favourably in continued challenging market conditions. In parallel, we are today launching measures aimed at creating better conditions for profitable growth – an organizational change and a cost savings program.

Positive organic sales growth

Organic growth was positive compared with the third quarter of the previous year, mainly driven by higher prices. Volumes and product mix also contributed positively. All business areas reported positive organic growth. Growth remained strong in Incontinence Products Retail, Feminine Care and Medical Solutions. However, Consumer Tissue noted negative growth, driven by lower volumes in Europe. In Professional Hygiene, Baby Care and Incontinence Health Care, we reported a positive volume development compared with the first half-year, although markets remained challenging.

Strengthened margins

The company's gross margin improved as a result of higher volumes and prices, in addition to lower costs of goods sold, including cost savings. We have reduced sales and administration costs compared with the second quarter of this year, and are delivering a strengthened margin of 14.6%, profit of more than SEK 5bn and strong cash flow.

Market-tailored innovation

Innovation is the main driver of growth for the company and our launches are tailored to the situation of our customers and consumers. One example is the launch of TENA ProSkin Stretch Day & Night, a new unique incontinence product that is easy to put on and take off, making it easier for both the patient and healthcare professionals. The product helps reduce the cost of continence care, which is especially relevant in the light of tight healthcare budgets.

"Today, I am launching measures that create better conditions for Essity to increase its growth rate going forward"

Measures to increase growth rate

With the aim of increasing our growth rate, and considering the current economic climate, we are launching a number of measures today to faster achieve the company's financial targets:

- We are making an organizational change that will decentralize decision-making and strengthen end-toend accountability for each product category. A simplified structure with a more well-defined allocation of responsibilities enhances the company's customer and consumer focus, while increasing our speed, agility and operational efficiency. The change also facilitates increased strategic focus on the categories with the greatest potential for profitable growth.
- In parallel, a cost savings program is launched, mainly encompassing sales and administration costs excluding marketing costs. The program is expected to generate annual cost savings of approximately SEK 1bn, with full effect by the end of 2026. The organizational change will contribute to reducing costs. The savings will mainly be invested in profitable volume growth. This program is in addition to our annual savings in costs of goods sold of SEK 0.5-1bn.

These measures will contribute to our goal of reaching more people with our leading hygiene and health products, capturing market shares and maximizing the potential of our product portfolio.

Notes

Note 1 Accounting principles

This interim report has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 and recommendation RFR 1 of the Swedish Corporate Reporting Board and RFR 2 for the Parent company. On January 1, 2025, the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB®) published amendments to IAS 21, The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates: Lack of Exchangeability, that entered into force following approval by the EU. Essity Aktiebolag (publ) applies this amendment, which has not had any material impact on the Group's or the Parent company's financial statements.

In other respects, the accounting principles and calculation methods applied correspond to those described in Essity's 2024 Annual Report.

Note 2 Risks and uncertainties

Processes for risk management

Essity's Board determines the Group's strategic direction based on recommendations from the Executive Management Team. Responsibility for the long-term, overall management of strategic risks corresponds to the company's delegation structure, from the Board of Directors to the CEO and from the CEO to the Business Unit Presidents. This means that most operational risks are managed by Essity's business units at the local level, but they are centrally coordinated when considered necessary. The tools used for coordination consist primarily of the business units' regular reporting and the annual strategy process, which includes risks and risk management.

Essity's financial risk management is centralized, as is its internal bank for financial transactions conducted by Group companies and the management of the Group's energy risks. Financial risks are managed in accordance with the Group's Finance Policy, which is adopted by Essity's Board and, together with Essity's Energy Risk Policy, provides a management framework. Risks are continuously compiled and monitored to ensure compliance with these guidelines. Essity has also centralized other risk management.

Essity has a staff function for internal audit, which monitors compliance with the Group's policies.

Essity's risk exposure and risk management are described on pages 41–46 and 59–60 in the 2024 Annual Report. No significant changes have taken place that have affected the reported risks.

Risks in conjunction with company acquisitions are analyzed in the due diligence processes that Essity carries out prior to all acquisitions. In cases where acquisitions have been carried out that may affect the assessment of Essity's risk exposure, these are described under the heading "Events during the quarter" in the interim or year-end reports.

The introduction or escalation of trade disputes, such as the imposition of significantly higher tariffs by the US administration on imports from certain trading partners, and any subsequent retaliation by such trading partners, may have an impact on tariffs or other barriers imposed on importers of goods between territories. This could directly or indirectly affect the Group's financial position and operating results, by increasing the prices of its products, weakening consumer purchasing power or otherwise causing economic instability in the affected countries.

Note 3 Financial assets and liabilities

Measurement principles and classifications of financial instruments, as described in Essity's 2024 Annual Report, Note E1, were applied consistently throughout the reporting period. Financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost provided they are not part of a fair value hedge when they are recognized at fair value through profit or loss. The fair value of trade receivables, other current and non-current receivables, cash and cash equivalents, trade payables and other current and non-current liabilities is estimated to be equal to their carrying amount.

Note 6 Use of non-International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS®) performance measures

Guidelines for Alternative Performance Measures (APMs) for companies with securities listed on a regulated market in the EU have been issued by ESMA (European Securities and Markets Authority). These guidelines are to be applied for APMs not supported under IFRS.

This interim report refers to a number of performance measures not defined in IFRS. These performance measures are used to help investors, management and other stakeholders analyze the company's operations. These non-IFRS performance measures may differ from similarly titled measures among other companies. Essity's 2024 Annual Report, pages 124–128, describes the various non-IFRS performance measures that are used as a complement to the financial information presented in accordance with IFRS. Abbreviations are used in the report for the performance and return measures below.
